Anger and Hate and Forgiveness

Dear Family of God,

Peace and Joy in Our Lord Jesus Christ!

Do you find yourself often frustrated, tired, and lacking patience? You may want to look at how you deal with your hatred and anger. The very first line we heard from Sacred Scripture applies to so many people in our culture. The Book of Sirach “Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will experience the Lord’s vengeance... So forgive your neighbor’s injustice.” The reading continues – “If you nourish anger against someone, how can you expect God to heal you?” Anger and hatred not only prevent a person from the healing that God wants us to know but also leads to more frustration, tiredness and even depression and anxiety.

Our Lord calls us to forgiveness because He calls us to holiness. But forgiveness is so difficult, especially when you’re angry. In the Gospels, Jesus repeatedly makes it clear – forgiveness is not optional. It is essential. After all, Jesus taught us to pray: “Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us...” Many of us have been praying that prayer since we were children. Now, we need to pray that we mean what we say.

A word of clarification: we’ve all heard the saying, “Forgive and forget.” Healing our memories doesn’t happen overnight. We remember the beautiful moments of our lives, as we should... but we can remember the times in life when we’ve been hurt, and we feel that pain again.

Some Christians say, “I want to forgive that person, but I still remember what they did.” They have a misconception that forgiving means forgetting. Forgiveness doesn’t mean that I can no longer remember what you did to me. Forgiveness means that I choose not to allow that memory of the past to control my present. Yes, I can remember the pain, but that pain does not have to control me today. I can choose to live in the present while looking to the future. Forgiveness does not mean that I have to allow you to keep doing something to me that is painful or destructive.

Christians believe that all of our actions have consequences. The husband who is physically abusive to his wife cannot say to her, “You have to forgive me 70 times 7 times, while I keep hitting you...” No. He needs to stop being abusive. Or he needs to move out. Or he needs to be arrested. She will need, eventually, to work on forgiving him.

A wise priest once said, “If someone has knocked you down and has put their foot on your neck, a Christian can say, ‘With God’s help, I will work to forgive you... but first you have to take your foot off my neck!’”

So, forgiveness is not a Christian way of pretending that things did not happen. Forgiveness is not Christian amnesia. Forgiveness is not a kind of approval that let’s bad people keep doing bad things. Forgiveness is not something I can demand that other people should work on. Forgiveness is something I need to start doing. That’s the only way our angry world gets healed. Forgiveness begins with you and with me.

Our Lord shows us the way to experiencing joy and true peace. As He suffered on the cross, Jesus could have angrily called on his Father to send down wrath and ruin. Instead, in His suffering, Jesus said, “Father, forgive them. They know not what they do.”

I get it. We see many injustices and hatred and anger and division in the world. We must continue to work with Our Lord and Our Lady and the Communion of Saints to make the Kingdom of God more present in peoples’ hearts. Part of the healing begins with forgiveness. To be clear: Forgiveness is not something that someone else needs to do. Letting go of anger is not something that someone else has to get working on.

Turning away from hate is not a task you should tell others to undertake. I remind myself that wrath and anger are bad for me. Vengeance is something that is bad for me. The unwillingness to forgive will harden my heart and sap my strength and turn me into the very kind of person I am frustrated by.

So yes, I expect people to forgive 70 times 7 times... and it starts with me. The great news: God wants you to experience wholeness and holiness that come from forgiveness more than you do. He will give you the grace you need to forgive. When you forgive, you are sharing in God's work. As you forgive, you participate in a supernatural action... you share the love of God that only comes from God. You and I are not capable of forgiving on our own. We seek retribution and vengeance. God desires you share in His work and be about His mission.

In his book, Fire of Mercy Heart of the Word, Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis offers this reflection:

Our Lord suggests that the Christian life is a battlefield. Only the squeamish and the cowardly return untouched and "whole" from battle. Wounds make the hero. He who does no violence to himself is either spiritually dead, apathetic to the point of putrefaction, or narcissistic to the point of prizing nothing above his own unblemished reflection in the mirror.

If I find nothing in myself to discipline, it is because I suffer from an adolescent insecurity that wants nothing changed, nothing challenged, and because I have installed myself in the illusion that everything about me is already perfect. Only the others need to change, only they have to undergo radical operations, and then all will be well for me in the world. Or I do not really believe in anything worth defending, worth fighting for, more precious than my body and my ego in their splendid isolation. I clutch spastically at the integrity and sovereignty of my body and ego as the ultimate treasure, little realizing that this body of ours has been given us to engage it in adventures, in odysseys, in warfare, in heroic deeds for the common good."

Practically speaking, our common experience shows that our dreams of physical and mental "wholeness" sooner or later crumble in this world. As we grow old, we are every day more the prey of aches and pains, sickness, lapses of memory, to say nothing of grievous terminal illnesses that emerge from within our poor "vessel of clay".

In the face of this reality, we must decide just how the experience of a crumbling frame will be used, how it will be submitted to the redeeming action of Christ, who, like a master mason, is continually carving us so that in the end we might become living stones of His heavenly Church. The painful experience of illness and aging that awaits all of us can become the best and fastest road to strip ourselves of the beautiful and vain self I admire in the mirror and be transformed into soft, humid, obedient clay in the hands of the sublime Potter, who alone knows in the context of what wonderful work of art He wants to use us.

God and God alone can heal you. Turn to Him. Let Him heal you.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

WHAT ARE THE SEVEN SORROWS OF MARY?

The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows celebrated on September 15th, dates back to the twelfth century.

Since at least that time, Catholics have recognized seven events in the life of Mary that caused her great sorrow. That is why the image of Mary as Our Lady of Sorrows often shows her with seven swords piercing her Immaculate Heart. She's also sometimes represented by a winged heart pierced with seven swords. The swords represent her grievous sorrows. Known as the Seven Dolors of Mary, these sorrows are:

1. The prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:25-35)
2. The flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15)
3. Loss of the Child Jesus for three days (Luke 2:41-50)
4. Mary meets Jesus on his way to Calvary (Luke 23:27-31; John 19:17)
5. Crucifixion and Death of Jesus (John 19:25-30)
6. The body of Jesus being taken from the Cross (Psalms 130; Luke 23:50-54; John 19:31-37)
7. The burial of Jesus (Isaiah 53:8; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42; Mark 15:40-47)

That's a lot for one woman to endure in a lifetime! Yet, Mary wasn't just another woman; she was the woman chosen by God to bear his Son. With that great joy and responsibility also came great sorrow.

Along with her great joy and sorrow came great love – for each one of us as her children. This is what our Lord asked of her as he hung dying on the Cross – to become Mother to all humankind.

Love is what gave her the courage to accept Simeon's prophecy. Love is what gave her the strength to embrace each sword as it pierced her heart. Love is what urged her to accept her Son's dying request. Love is what compels her to continue caring for us tenderly, limitlessly, and faithfully.

OUR SCHOOL & FORMATION

Have YOU thought about BECOMING CATHOLIC?

In his book "Becoming Catholic" David Yamane, explored the reasons why individuals entered into an Adult Formation program for Catholic Initiation. Did you know that 72% of respondents said their family was the main reason they joined the Catholic Church? Many explained that they were led to the Catholic faith by a direct invitation from a family member or a close friend.

If you have a spouse, in-law, other family member or a friend who has expressed an interest or who attends Mass with you, maybe it is time for you to extend an invitation for them to learn more about our faith. Our Initiation process for Adults (RCIA) is centered on faith-based relationships. Meetings include service opportunities and a welcoming environment where people can learn about and explore the Catholic faith, its history, its beliefs and its practices.

If you or someone you know is searching for something more in life or to just find out more about the Catholic faith, Contact Shirley Smalley in the Parish Office. We have a small team of committed Catholic adults ready and willing to answer questions and to journey beside inquirers as together we learn more about Christ and His Church. All inquiries are welcome.

Come and see what the Catholic Church believes and why. Join us as we journey together in faith.*

Anyone interested in finding out more about the RCIA process or about receiving sacraments as an adult, should contact Shirley Smalley through the Parish Office.

Join Bishop Olmstead in Praying
a 54-Day Rosary
Novena For Our Nation
August 30-October 22

As a family, or as an individual, simply pray these intentions before praying the daily Rosary. The Rosary is prayed every day of the Novena.

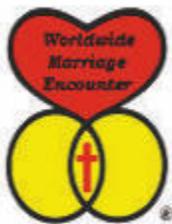

Please pray for the following intentions:

1. For the conversion and spiritual protection of our nation, currently experiencing a calamity of sin, division, and vitriol.
2. For authentic leadership, secular and in the Church, rooted in true virtue.
3. For the political parties of our nation to be led by the common good, and to agree on the fundamentals of any nation with a future: protection of human life at all stages, recognition of the dignity of every human person precisely because he or she is made in the image of God, upholding of marriage as the fundamental building block of society, and protection of free speech, freedom of religion, and all other attendant freedoms which help build a virtuous and generous citizenry.
4. For the rejection of all forms of collectivism (CCC 1885), whether Marxist or born of another false ideology, and the cultivation of true patriotism, based on love for what is best in our country, solidarity with those in need and subsidiarity for those smaller stations of governance such as the family.
5. For the strengthening of all families, in particular that Catholic families live more deeply their call to be the "domestic church".
6. For the virtues of mercy and forgiveness to be demonstrated by our leaders and especially those who pray the Our Father.
7. For an end to unjust discrimination and the healing of racial divisions and all other divisiveness unworthy of a sovereign nation.
8. For the vulnerable among us, especially pre-born children, elderly, immigrants, unemployed and the poor.
9. For the restoration of one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The challenge in today's Gospel is to forget how others have behaved toward us and to look to God's way of loving and forgiving. Our focus must be on God.

Do you have a neighbor or friend who is in temporary need because of a job loss or an illness? Please leave a message for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul...we want to help. Call us at 480-905-4439

Where Miracles Happen Every Day!

KIDS CORNER

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:
Forgive your brother from your heart.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus says to forgive each other seventy times seven or 490 times. That's forgiving once each day for more than a year. Put 490 jelly beans in a gallon "Forgiveness Jug." Each time you forgive someone, eat a jelly bean. When you realize that God has forgiven you, it is easier to forgive others from your heart. God fills you with his love, which is even better than jelly beans. Then you can forgive without holding a grudge.

PRAYER

Lord, help me forgive other people completely and quickly.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will forgive those who hurt me because God has forgiven me.

WATER DRIVE FOR THE HOMELESS

Thank you for helping us collect bottled water for the homeless. Because of your generosity, we collected 5,800 bottles of water.

The water bottles will be distributed to the homeless by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Water Truck program. This truck drives across the city handing out water, sun screen, hats, sack lunches and other items to those living on the streets.

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Christ to others.
