Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament (Part I of V)

Dear Family,

Peace and Joy in Our Lord Jesus!

The Solemnity of All Saints can inspire us to become who God has created us to be, namely, saints. As I get to know the holy men and women who are now Saints in heaven, I am inspired by their heroic lives. How did these ordinary people end up living such extraordinary lives? One thing we can point to is their love for Our Lord... a love often fostered by spending time in His Real Presence in Eucharist Adoration. Don't take my word for it. Here is what some of the Saints have said about Eucharistic Adoration.

- “In one day, the Eucharist will make you produce more for the glory of God than a whole lifetime without it.” — St. Peter Julian Eymard
- “We should consider those moments spent before the Blessed Sacrament as the happiest of our lives.”
— St. John Vianney
- “Every time we look at the Blessed Sacrament our place in heaven is raised forever.” — St. Gertrude
- “The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white Host.” — Archbishop Fulton Sheen
- “A thousand years of enjoying human glory is not worth even an hour spent communing with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.” — St. Padre Pio
- “The Eucharist is that love which surpasses all loves in Heaven and on earth.” — St. Bernard
- “I encourage Christians to visit Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament, for we are all called to abide in the presence of God.” — Blessed John Paul II
- “Nowhere does Jesus hear our prayers more readily than in the Blessed Sacrament.”
— Blessed Henry Susson
- “In the presence of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament we ought to be like the Blessed in Heaven before the Divine Essence.” — St Teresa of Avila
- “Any time spent before the Eucharistic presence, be it long or short is the best-spent time of our lives.”
— St. Catherine of Genoa
- “In the Eucharist is all the power that created the universe and all the love that redeemed it!”
— Msgr. Franklin Hurd
- “My greatest happiness is to be before the Blessed Sacrament, where my heart is, as it were, in its center.”
— St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
- “In the Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration we meet the merciful love of God that passes through the Heart of Jesus Christ.” — Blessed John Paul II

As we prepare to open the St. Bernadette Perpetual Adoration Chapel, I am going to spend some time over the next several weeks sharing the incredible blessing perpetual adoration can be for our parish community, our families, and for our adorers. It is my hope that many people will be inspired to become a committed adorer of Our Eucharist King.

To begin perpetual adoration, we will need at least 336 committed adorers. Why do we need 336 people? For exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament to happen, we need at least 2 people for each available hour of a 24-hour week. These committed adorers will then be praying for our parish, offering words of gratitude, bringing petitions, glorifying God and enabling a multitude of graces to be showered upon us all for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

God Bless,

Gospel Reflection

Misguided zeal and pride

Jesus warned the scribes and Pharisees, the teachers and rulers of Israel, to teach and serve their people with humility and sincerity rather than with pride and self-seeking privileges and honor. They went to great lengths to draw attention to their religious status and practices. In a way, they wanted to be good models of observant Jews. "See how well we observe all the ritual rules and regulations of our religion!" In their misguided zeal for religion they sought recognition and honor for themselves rather than for God. They made the practice of their faith a burden rather than a joy for the people they were supposed to serve.

True respect for God inclines us to humble ourselves and to submit to his wisdom and guidance. We cannot be taught by God unless we first learn to listen to his word and then obey his instruction.

One Father and Teacher

Was Jesus against calling anyone a rabbi, the Jewish title for a teacher of God's word (Matthew 23:7-8), or a father? The law of Moses in Scripture specifically instructed all fathers to be teachers and instructors for their children to help them understand and obey God's instructions (Deuteronomy 6:7)? Why did Jesus rebuke the scribes and Pharisees, the religious authorities of the Jewish people, in the presence of his disciples? Jesus wanted to warn both his own disciples and the religious leaders about the temptation to seek honors and titles that draw attention to ourselves in place of God and his word. Pride tempts us to put ourselves first above others.

The Scriptures give ample warning about the danger of self-seeking pride: Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall (Proverbs 16:18). God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble (James 4:6; Proverbs 3:24).

Origen (185-254 AD), an early Christian teacher and bible scholar, reminds those who teach and lead to remember that they are first and foremost "disciples" and "servants" who sit at the feet of their Master and Teacher the Lord Jesus Christ:

"You have one teacher, and you are all brothers to each other...Whoever ministers with the divine word does not put himself forward to be called teacher, for he knows that when he performs well it is Christ who is within him. He should only call himself servant according to the command of Christ, saying, "Whoever is greater among you, let him be the servant of all."

True humility

Respect for God and for his ways inclines us to humility and to simplicity of heart - the willing readiness to seek the one true good who is God himself. What is the nature of true humility and why should we embrace it as essential for our lives? We can easily mistake humility as something demeaning or harmful to our sense of well-being and feeling good about ourselves. True humility is not feeling bad about yourself, or having a low opinion of yourself, or thinking of yourself as inferior to all others. True humility frees us from preoccupation with ourselves, whereas a low self-opinion tends to focus our attention on ourselves. Humility is truth in self-understanding and truth in action. Viewing ourselves honestly, with sober judgment, means seeing ourselves the way God sees us (Psalm 139:1-4).

A humble person makes a realistic assessment of oneself without illusion or pretense to be something one is not. A truly humble person regards oneself neither smaller nor larger than one truly is. True humility frees us to be ourselves as God regards us and to avoid falling into despair and pride. A humble person does not want to wear a mask or put on a facade in order to look good to others. Such a person is not swayed by accidentals, such as fame, reputation, success, or failure. Do you know the joy of Christ-like humility and simplicity of heart?

Humility is the queen or foundation of all the other virtues because it enables us to see and judge correctly, the way God sees. Humility helps us to be teachable so we can acquire true knowledge, wisdom, and an honest view of reality. It directs our energy, zeal, and will to give ourselves to something greater than ourselves. Humility frees us to love and serve others willingly and selflessly, for their own sake, rather than for our own. Paul the Apostle gives us the greatest example and model of humility in the person of Jesus Christ, who emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, and... who humbled himself and became obedient unto death, even death on a cross (Philippians 2:7-8). Do you want to be a servant as Jesus loved and served others? The Lord Jesus gives us his heart - the heart of a servant who seeks the good of others and puts their interests first in his care and concern for them.

Lord Jesus, you became a servant for my sake to set me free from the tyranny of selfish pride and self-concern. Teach me to be humble as you are humble and to love others generously with selfless service and kindness.

PRAYER FOR OUR COUNTRY

O GOD OUR CREATOR, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God, and your Son, Jesus Christ. Through the power and working of your Holy Spirit, you call us to live out our faith in the midst of the world, bringing the light and the saving truth of the Gospel to every corner of society.

We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith. Grant, we pray, O heavenly Father, a clear and united voice to all your sons and daughters gathered in your Church in this decisive hour in the history of our nation, so that, with every trial withstood and every danger overcome—for the sake of our children, our grandchildren, and all who come after us—this great land will always be “one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.” We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen uscgb.org

FINANCIAL REPORT

July 1, 2019 - June 30, 2020

Each of us has positive symbols and memories that touch our hearts and minds in unique and special ways. For many, St. Bernadette is one of those memories and/or anchor symbols. As you drive down the freeway or our neighborhood streets, the steeple of our Church and the chimes that ring out through the day are a clear sign of God's presence and the faith of our community. Amid a backdrop of negative voices, the spirit and determination of our parishioners serve as a beacon of light and a sign of hope. Because of the generous sacrificial offerings of many parishioners, we began our fiscal year strong and vibrant. Over the past few months, we have adapted but we have not changed the character of our parish, our spirit, our determination, and our commitment to love and serve God and one another.

It is important for us to remember that, although some things at the close of the fiscal year looked a little different, our parish has continued to grow and flourish. The accomplishments of the past year are truly remarkable and proof of what can happen when we cooperate with God and His plan. We have a strong foundation and an unwavering commitment to growing in holiness, deepening our devotion to the Eucharist, offering the holy sacrifice of the Mass on a regular basis, providing Confessions daily, welcoming the stranger, and helping those in need. Over the past year, your generosity and faithful financial support of our parish has allowed us to maintain our current staffing levels, to offer strong catechetical and faith formation programs, to provide a vibrant in-person and online Catholic faith-based school program, to keep our community outreach programs open, and to continue our ministries, all while implementing the necessary COVID protocols, adjustments, and protections.

Each June, our Parish closes its fiscal year and we begin working on the Annual Report that is submitted to our Finance Council, to the Parish and the Diocese. Our report highlights many of the amazing things that we have collectively accomplished. A few are listed below.

Over the past year we have:

- Welcomed 195 new families bringing our membership to over 1,800 parishioners.
- Celebrated 18 funeral/memorial masses, 17 infant baptisms, completed Sacraments of Initiation for 88 adults, teens & youth, and 12 weddings.
- Increased online giving by 37% to 40% of the regular and special donations.
- Decreased the mortgage principle from 1.27M to $192K (current debt) and a 51% decrease in related interest payments.
- Achieved Capital Improvements that include a new Tabernacle with Altar candles, new school playgrounds, access system upgrade for the Adoration chapel, and created an onsite Community Police substation.

God's grace has taken us this far and will sustain us in the months and years ahead. Suffering and trial have redemptive meaning that leads to hope and hope gives rise to resilience and a deeper level of faith. Your faithfulness, fidelity and your commitment to live out the Gospel makes a difference and provides a foundation for evangelization and growth in holiness. You are a sign of the living presence of God and we joyfully acknowledge all that has been achieved and all that is yet to come. Join us as we celebrate our blessings and vision of God's plan for our continued growth and faithfulness.

In Christ,

Deacon Al Homiski

Knights of Columbus Catholic Citizenship Essay Contest

The theme for this year's contest is: Discuss how trusting in God during a difficult time has helped you or someone you know find the strength and hope to endure it. Consider especially those times when it was a challenge to understand why something was happening. Consider also sharing any lessons about faith and hope you or someone you know may have learned from this experience.

The contest is open to all students in 8th to 12th grades. Please see our website for all guidelines, the submission form, & contact details for the coordinator. There will be cash prizes for the top three essays. Contestants will need to submit their 500-750 word typed essays and an entry form to the Knights mailbox at the St. Bernadette parish office or via e-mail by All Saint's Day, Sunday November 1, 2020. Winners will be announced by Thanksgiving.

For more information about these & other upcoming events, please visit our website or contact us at the email address listed below.
