Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament (Part IV of V)

Dear Family,

Peace and Joy in Our Lord Jesus!

On the television show Jeopardy, the final question was “How many steps does the guard take during his walk across the tomb of the Unknowns”. All three contestants missed it! So if you are ever a contestant on Jeopardy... here are some facts about the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

How many steps does the guard take during his walk across the tomb of the Unknowns and why? 21 steps: It alludes to the twenty-one-gun salute which is the highest honor given any military or foreign dignitary.

How long does he hesitate after his about-face to begin his return walk and why? 21 seconds for the same reason as answer number 1.

Why are his gloves wet? His gloves are moistened to prevent his losing his grip on the rifle.

Does he carry his rifle on the same shoulder all the time and, if not, why not? He carries the rifle on the shoulder away from the tomb. After his march across the path, he executes an about-face and moves the rifle to the outside shoulder.

How often are the guards changed? Guards are changed every thirty minutes, twenty-four hours a day, 365 days a year.

What physical traits are required of guards?

- For a person to apply for guard duty at the tomb, he must be between 5' 10" and 6' 2" tall and his waist size cannot exceed 30.
- They must commit 2 years of life to guard the tomb, live in a barracks under the tomb, and cannot drink any alcohol on or off duty for the rest of their lives.
- They cannot swear in public for the rest of their lives and cannot disgrace the uniform or the tomb in any way. After two years, guards are given a wreath pin that is worn on their lapel signifying they served as guard of the tomb. There are only 400 presently worn. The guards must obey these rules for the rest of their lives or give up the wreath pin.
- The shoes are specially made with very thick soles to keep the heat and cold from their feet. There are metal heel plates that extend to the top of the shoe in order to make the loud click as they come to a halt.
- There are no wrinkles, folds or lint on the uniform. Guards dress for duty in front of a full-length mirror.
- The first six months of duty a guard cannot talk to anyone nor watch TV.
- All off duty time is spent studying the 175 notable people laid to rest in Arlington National Cemetery. A guard must memorize who they are and where they are interred. Among the notables are: President Taft, Joe Lewis {the boxer} Medal of Honor winner Audie L. Murphy, the most decorated soldier of WWII and of Hollywood fame.
- Every guard spends five hours a day getting his uniforms ready for guard duty.

LETTER FROM THE PASTOR (PAGE 2 OF 2)

In 2003 as Hurricane Isabelle was approaching Washington, DC, our US Senate/House took 2 days off with anticipation of the storm. On the ABC evening news, it was reported that because of the dangers from the hurricane, the military members assigned the duty of guarding the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier were given permission to suspend the assignment. They respectfully declined the offer, "No way, Sir!" Soaked to the skin, marching in the pelting rain of a tropical storm, they said that guarding the Tomb was not just an assignment; it was the highest honor that can be afforded to a service person. The tomb has been patrolled continuously, 24/7, since 1930. God Bless and keep them.

Present in the Most Blessed Sacrament is Our Lord Jesus who gave His life that we may have Eternal life. Eucharistic Adoration is our opportunity to "stand guard" in prayerful adoration of Our Lord who is truly present. Our military brothers and sisters have shown us the value and importance of guarding the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. Our Lord Jesus has shown us the value of each and every life by giving His own life for us. While standing guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier has value, the importance of paying meticulous attention to Our Lord in prayerful adoration is of infinite value. May we seek to find real and meaningful ways to encounter the living Christ and His promise of eternal life. Please prayerfully consider spending an hour in adoration of Our Eucharistic King!

Here is a link to a very inspired video on adoration. It is beautifully done. <https://youtu.be/ApZ2ZHRTiY8>

God Bless,

MINISTRIES & ACTIVITIES

December Service Project

Advent is just around the corner and plans are being made for the Annual St. Bernadette Christmas Angel Tree Project & Party. This year's party will be held on Saturday, December 12th.

This year we have a unique opportunity to share hope, joy and the love of Christ with those who are suffering from not only financial poverty but from isolation and loneliness.

We are currently looking for sponsors and leaders. If you are interested in underwriting some of the major general expenses for supplies or last minute purchases, please contact Shirley Smalley in the Parish Office.

Virtual angels are available now. Hard copy angels will be handed out starting this weekend November 21st & 22nd. You can participate from the safety of your home by ordering a gift online and having it shipped to the Parish. You can also donate online through WeShare for a bike, a present, a gift card or as a general donation. Or you can sign-up or take an Angel, go shopping, and bring the gift to the Parish. There are so many ways to support this event.

Help us to be the living spirit of Christmas to others.

This is an event where everyone can join in and participate.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter is a weekend to rediscover the spark that was there on your wedding day. Take time to rediscover the best friend you had when you were first married.

Join the millions of couples worldwide who have learned how to keep their marriage vibrant and alive by signing up today to attend one of the upcoming Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekends.

Early registration is highly recommended. For more information visit our website at: wwmearizona.com.

CULTURE OF LIFE

Annual Christmas Ornament Sale

The Culture of Life Committee will be selling Christmas

Ornaments after all masses on November 28th & 29th. and December 5th & 6th.

This year's keepsake ornaments cost $10. Continue your annual tradition or start a new one by buying one for yourself, a family member, teacher or a friend.

Funds raised by ornament sales help with Culture of Life activities and community agencies that support life at all stages.

Come.. Inherit the Kingdom Prepared for You

Do you allow the love of Christ, who is your Lord and King, to rule in your heart? Augustine of Hippo (354-430 A.D.) said, "Essentially, there are two kinds of people, because there are two kinds of love. One is holy, the other is selfish. One is subject to God; the other endeavors to equal Him." Jesus came not only to fulfill the law of righteousness (Leviticus 19), but to transform it through his unconditional love and mercy towards us.

The Lord Jesus proved his love for us by offering up his life on the cross as the atoning sacrifice for our sins. His death brings freedom and life for us - freedom from fear, selfishness, and greed - and new abundant life in the Holy Spirit who fills our hearts with the love of God (Romans 5:5). Do you allow God's love to purify your heart and transform your mind to think, act, and love others as the Lord Jesus has taught through word and example?

The lesson of separating goats and sheep at the end of the day

Jesus' description of the "Son of Man", a Messianic title which points to the coming of God's anointed Ruler and Judge over the earth (John 5:26-29, Daniel 7:13ff), and his parable about the separation of goats and sheep must have startled his audience. What does the separation of goats and sheep have to do with the Day of God's Judgement over the earth? In arid dry lands such as Palestine, goats and sheep often grazed together during the day because green pasture was sparse. At nightfall, when the shepherd brought the sheep and goats to their place of rest, he separated them into two groups. Goats by temperament are aggressive, domineering, restless, and territorial. They butt heads with their horns whenever they think someone is intruding on their space.

Goats came to symbolize evil and the expression "scape-goat" become a common expression for someone bearing blame or guilt for others. (See Leviticus 26:20-22 for a description of the ritual expulsion of a sin-bearing goat on the Day of Atonement.) Jesus took our guilt and sins upon himself and nailed them to the cross. He paid the price to set us free from sin and death. Our choice is either to follow and obey him as our Lord and Savior or to be our own master and go our own separate way apart from God's way of truth and righteousness (moral goodness).

We cannot remain neutral or indifferent to the commands of Christ. If we do not repent of our wrongdoing (our sins and offenses against God and neighbor) and obey the Gospel we cannot be disciples of the Lord Jesus nor inherit his kingdom of righteousness, peace, and joy. Separation of the good from the bad is inevitable because one way leads to sin, rebellion, and death and the other way leads to purification, peace, and everlasting life with God.

Love of God frees us from inordinate love of self

The parable of the goats and sheep has a similar endpoint as the parable of the rich man who refused to give any help to the poor man Lazarus who begged daily at the rich man's doorstep (Luke 16:19-31). Although Lazarus was poor and lacked what he needed, he nonetheless put his hope in God and the promise of everlasting life in God's kingdom. The rich man was a lover of wealth rather than a lover of God and neighbor. When Lazarus died, he was carried by the angels to Abraham's bosom to receive his reward in heaven. When the rich man died his fortunes were reversed and he was cast into the unquenchable fires of hell to receive his just desserts. The parable emphasizes the great chasm and wall of separation between the former rich man held now bound as a poor and miserable prisoner in hell and Lazarus clothed in royal garments feasting at God's banquet table in the kingdom of heaven.

The day of God's righteous judgment will disclose which kind of love we chose in this present life - a holy unselfish love directed to God and to the welfare of our neighbor or a disordered and selfish love that puts oneself above God and the good of our neighbor.

When Martin of Tours (316-397 AD), a young Roman soldier who had been reluctant to fully commit his life to Christ and be baptized as a Christian, met a poor beggar on the road who had no clothes to warm himself in the freezing cold, Martin took pity on him. He immediately got off his horse and cut his cloak in two and then gave half to the stranger. That night Martin dreamt he saw a vision of Jesus in heaven robed in a torn cloak just like the one he gave away that day to the beggar. One of the angels next to Jesus asked, "Master, why do you wear that battered cloak?" Jesus replied, "My servant Martin gave it to me." Martin's disciple and biographer Sulpicius Severus states that as a consequence of this vision "Martin flew to be baptized" to give his life fully to Christ as a member of his people - the body of Christ on earth and the communion of saints and angels in heaven.

Augustine of Hippo (354-430 A.D.) wrote, "Christ is at once above and below - above in Himself, below in his people. Fear Christ above, and recognize him below. Here he is poor, with and in the poor; there he is rich, with and in God. Have Christ above bestowing his bounty; recognize him here in his need" (excerpt from Sermon 123, 44).

On the day of judgment Jesus will ask "whom did you love"?

When the Lord Jesus comes again as Judge and Ruler over all, he will call each one of us to stand before his seat of judgment to answer the question - who did you love and put first in this life? Inordinate love of self crowds out love of God and love of neighbor. Those who put their faith in Jesus Christ and follow his way of love and righteousness will not be disappointed. They will receive the just reward - life and peace with God in his everlasting kingdom.

If we entrust our lives to the Lord Jesus today, and allow his Holy Spirit to purify our hearts and minds, then he will give us the grace, strength, and freedom to walk and live each day in the power of his merciful love and goodness. Let us entrust our lives into the hands of the merciful Savior who gave his life for us. And let us ask the Lord Jesus to increase our faith, strengthen our hope, and enkindle in us the fire of his merciful love and compassion for all.

Lord Jesus, be the Master and Ruler of my life. May your love rule in my heart that I may only think, act, and speak with charity and good will for all. www.dailyscripture.net

Our Annual Appeal!

This year has brought a plethora of burdens and stress on to all of us as we have attempted to navigate through the pandemic together. Here at Saint John XXIII Catholic School, we have been blessed to be able to provide a safe and healthy atmosphere for our students to learn in-person and virtually. Given this year's circumstances, we invite you to participate in our Annual Appeal and help us reach our goal of $200,000 by June. All donations go towards helping cover the costs it takes to operate the school. We sincerely appreciate your support during this time and will continue to keep you in our prayers. To donate, scan the QR code below and follow the 3 quick and easy steps! Thank you!

Scan the code with your camera! Click the yellow "Donate" button. Insert your donation amount and information!

Thanksgiving Day Mass Schedule

Thursday, November 26th at 6:30 & 8:30 AM

Thanksgiving, celebrated on the fourth Thursday of every November, is a day to be grateful and to offer thanks to the Almighty, family, and friends. Family gatherings, delicious meals, extravagant parades and performances, and old school aggressively-played football—all of these things are nearly synonymous with this national holiday.

Amidst all this merriment, there's another aspect to this day that shouldn't be forgotten or overlooked. It is this aspect that adds weight to this day. It is a day to be thankful; for what was, what is, and what will be. And there is no better way to express your thankfulness for the people and the things in your life, than saying it in prayer.

Thanksgiving Day Table Prayer

O Gracious God, we give you thanks for your overflowing generosity to us. Thank you for the blessings of the food we eat and especially for this feast today. Thank you for our home and family and friends, especially for the presence of those gathered here. Thank you for our health, our work and our play.

Please send help to those who are hungry, alone, sick and suffering war and violence. Open our hearts to your love.

We ask all these things through Christ your son. Amen.

WITH GRATEFUL HEARTS

This past weekend our parishioners donated enough food to fill 110 banana boxes for the poor and needy. In addition to the food donations, over 50 parishioners in small groups ranging in ages from eight to eighty donated their time to collect, sort, box and load the food boxes.

Thank you for sharing your blessings and the love of God with others.

Understanding the Liturgical Year & Cycles

Did You Know Our New Liturgical Year Begins next Sunday on November 29th?

The 'Liturgical Year' is the annual cycle in which the Church relives the saving events of Christ's life, death and resurrection. These events are arranged in historical sequence so that we might liturgically relive the meaning of those saving mysteries in a prayerful way.

The liturgical year serves as the Church's calendar. It consists of a series of six liturgical seasons determining when feast days and other holy days are observed, which Scripture and Gospel readings are used at Mass, the interior decoration of a Church, the priest's vestment colors, the timing of spiritual seasons and practices such as Lent, and much more.

Next Sunday is the final Sunday of the Liturgical Year. The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe is the last Sunday in Ordinary Time. The new Liturgical Year begins on the first Sunday of Advent, which is November 29th this year.

The start of a new liturgical year marks the transition from one lectionary cycle (A, B, or C) to the next. The three-year cycle of readings is built around readings from the three synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. The next lectionary cycle is B. Beginning next weekend, the Gospel readings will be primarily from the Gospel of Mark; but, since Mark is the shortest Gospel, it may be supplemented throughout the year with readings from the Gospel of John.

By observing the liturgical calendar, the Church sanctifies time itself by offering Christ's redeeming power to us in a sacramental way. What Jesus once accomplished in his ministry on earth is now, through the ministry of the Church, made present to us throughout the liturgical year.
