PASTOR'S NOTES

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Today is the 4th Sunday of Advent. Because so many of us will be traveling over Christmas, I want to take this opportunity, on behalf of our parish family, to wish all of you a Blessed and Merry Christmas!

Over the next few days, we will be wrapping up our Christmas preparations—decorating, buying and wrapping presents, sending cards, baking, and hopefully gathering with friends and family. Of course we need remember the most important preparation of all... spiritual ones.

One thing we could all do is pray for all the visitors coming to our parish. Each Christmas, our churches are filled with visitors who come to pray before the Manger, go to confession, and experience the beauty of the Catholic liturgy.

Some of these men and women are not Catholic; others do not practice the faith regularly. Some are estranged from the Church, angry at her teachings, hurt by her representatives; a larger number simply live their lives as if the Church had no place in their lives, no bearing on their lifestyles, careers, and choices--except at Christmas.

I am also deeply aware that some of these people are in our own families—our parents, our children, our siblings. I think its important for us to have some simple messages this Christmas to encourage our loved ones to make this Christmas a blessed experience—a turning point in the ways of faith. Messages like:

- * You are welcome!
- * The door of your local Catholic church is open to you.
- * Whatever your circumstances, however much time has passed since your last visit to a church, there is a place for you.
- * If you are feeling afraid or apprehensive, there is no need to be. Christ is waiting for you!
- * The Church will not judge you. God is extending an invitation to you. You are part of His and our family.
- * God made you for Himself and for heaven.
- * The message of Jesus is about the unconditional love of God and his mercy, forgiveness and healing that only He can bring you.
- * The Sacraments can strengthen your relationship with Christ, with His Church and with others.
- * Growing in virtues and learning about Our Blessed Mother Mary and the Saints will help you to become holy and will enable you to experience God's peace.
- * The Church is here to help you to grow in your relationship with Our Lord Jesus, Mother Mary, the Saints and one another.
- * The Church acknowledges that Catholics may have hurt some people in the past. We are ready to listen to you and your story, and we are very sorry for when and where the harm has been done. The Church is learning from her mistakes. She has changed and, if you've been away for a long time, come and see for yourself.

Let us pray that this Christmas season will be a time for spiritual renewal for the human family.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline, V.F.

A Christmas Prayer

By St. John XXIII

O sweet Child of Bethlehem, grant that we may share with all our hearts in this profound mystery of Christmas.
Put into the hearts of men and women
this peace for which they sometimes seek so desperately
and which you alone can give to them.
Help them to know one another better,
and to live as brothers and sisters
children of the same Father.

Reveal to them also your beauty,
holiness and purity.
Awaken in their hearts love and gratitude for
your infinite goodness.
Join them all
together in your love.
And give us your heavenly peace.
Amen.

He Will Save His People from Their Sins

Do you hold on to the promises of God at all times, especially when you are faced with uncertainty or adversity? The prophet Isaiah spoke words of hope in a hopeless situation for Israel. When Ahaz, the apostate king of Judah and heir to the throne of David (735 B.C.) was surrounded by forces that threatened to destroy him and his people, God offered him a sign to reassure him that God would not abandon the promise he made to David and his descendants. King Ahaz, however, had lost hope in God and refused to ask for a sign of favor. God, nonetheless, gave a sign to assure his people that he would indeed give them a Savior who would rule with peace and righteousness (Isaiah 7:11ff). Like the prophet Isaiah we are called "in hope to believe against hope" (Romans 4:18) that God can and will fulfill all his promises.

Mary was found to be with child of the Holy Spirit

Mary had to face an enormous challenge to her faith and trust in God and to the faith of her family and Joseph, the man she chose to marry. She was asked to assume a burden of tremendous responsibility. It had never been heard of before that a child could be born without a natural father. Mary was asked to accept this miraculous exception to the laws of nature. That required faith and trust in God and in his promises. Second, Mary was not yet married. Pregnancy outside of wedlock was not tolerated in those days. Mary was only espoused to Joseph, and such an engagement had to last for a whole year. She was asked to assume a great risk. She could have been rejected by Joseph, by her family, by all her own people. Mary knew that Joseph and her family would not understand without revelation from God. She nonetheless believed and trusted in God's promises.

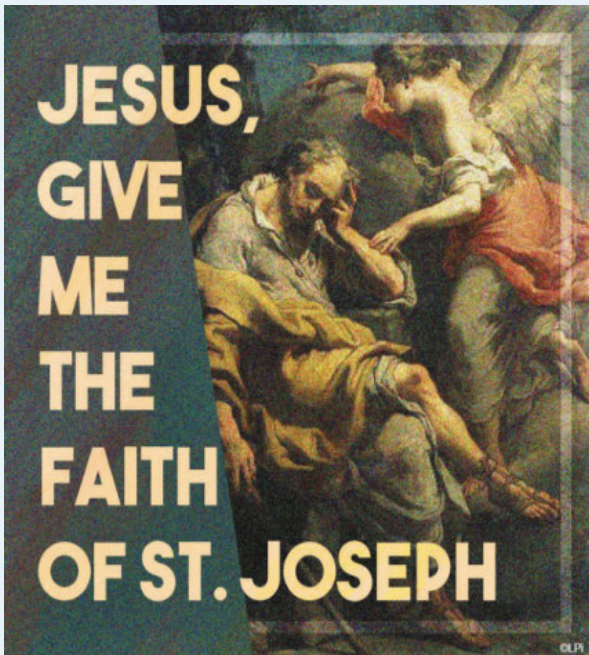

Joseph believed the angel's message "that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit"

Joseph, a just and God-fearing man, did not wish to embarrass or punish his espoused wife, Mary when he discovered that she was pregnant. To all appearances she had broken their solemn pledge to be faithful and chaste to one another. Joseph, no doubt took this troubling matter to God in prayer. He was not hasty to judge or to react with hurt and anger. God rewarded him not only with guidance and consolation, but with the divine assurance that he had indeed called Joseph to be the husband of Mary and to assume a mission that would require the utmost faith, confidence, and trust in Almighty God. Joseph believed in the divine message to take Mary as his wife and to accept the child in her womb as the promised Messiah.

A model of faith for us

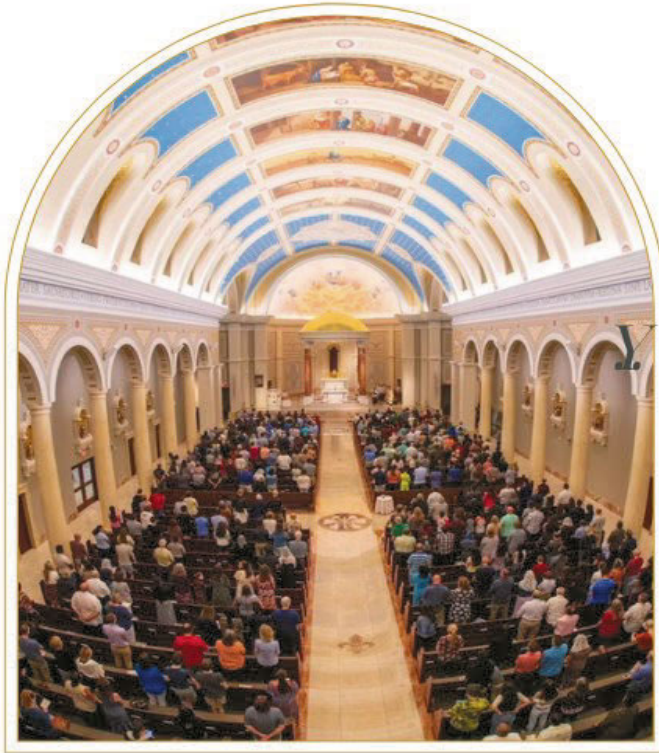

Like Mary, Joseph is a model of faith for us. He is a faithful witness and servant of God's unfolding plan of redemption. Are you ready to believe in the promises of God, even when faced with perplexing circumstances and what seems like insurmountable problems? God has not left us alone, but has brought us his only begotten Son, our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Let us celebrate Christmas, the feast of the Incarnation, with joyful hearts and let us renew our faith and hope in God and in his redeeming work.

*Lord Jesus, you came to save us from sin and the power of death.
May I always rejoice in your salvation and trust in your divine plan for my life. dailyscripture.com*

EVENTS AND INFORMATION

CarePortal

CONNECTING YOU TO THE CHILD IN NEED
Because every child matters.

The Culture of Life Committee is initiating a new program to deepen our efforts to support foster children and women/couples in crisis pregnancies. Culture of Life representatives will choose requests utilizing a managed computer program called CarePortal. These requests are inputted and thereby vetted by social service agencies and pregnancy resource centers for authentic needs.

We are asking our St. Bernadette community to support our efforts in fulfilling these requests throughout the year. Monetary gifts made through the CarePortal system will be used only to purchase items that cannot be provided otherwise (donation tax receipts provided by CarePortal).

This project will give our community the opportunity to truly walk with families in need. We hope you will join us on this new journey and appreciate your support.

To donate now:

- please visit our parish website at <https://www.saintbernadette.com/ministry-culturelife>
- click on the CarePortal link
- this will take you to the CarePortal site and St. Bernadette's CarePortal Fund
- Once there, click on the "Give to our CarePortal Fund" tab to securely donate.

If you have questions regarding this program or to find out other ways to assist, please contact Kelly Sarotte at sarottekelly@gmail.com. Thank you!
