16TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. - Mk 6:34

Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament (Part V of V)

Dear Family,

Peace and Joy in Our Lord Jesus!

Jesus once commented that those who believe in Him without seeing would be blessed (Jn 20:29). Yet in His mercy, He still provides a way for us to gaze upon Him two thousand years after He walked the earth (2 Cor 3:18). Therefore, "fix your eyes on" the eucharistic Jesus (Heb 3:1). Consider visiting Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. In this place of believing, let Him fill you with "eucharistic amazement" (Ecclesia de Eucharistia, Pope John Paul II, 6).

I am so grateful to all those who have committed to adoring Our Lord for one hour each week. Your promise to love and adore Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament blesses us all. Your dedication to praying before Our Lord each week provides a vital link in an unbroken chain of love offered to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament whereby our parish enthrones Him King by giving Him the honor and glory due His name through perpetual adoration.

Your commitment to perpetual adoration is to grow in your personal relationship with Jesus and contribute to the Church's mission to bring Christ to the world. Adoring Our Lord upon His Eucharistic Throne brings us face to face with the awesome humility of Our Lord. He waits for you with unconditional love. He thirsts for your love. The Presence of God longs for you to give your heart to Him. Adoration is where His Heart speaks to your heart. All joy in heaven and earth flows from Our Lord and is given to us as the Sacred Body of Our Lord. Come let us adore!

Your Holy Hour...

- brings everyone in the world closer to Christ
- deepens your union with Christ and brings great joy to His Sacred Heart
- helps to "contribute to the radical transformation of the whole world." (John Paul II, L' Osservatore Romano, June 26, 1996)
- blesses the Church with vocations through prayer
- helps fallen away Catholics return to the Church
- builds a bridge for our separated brethren to have a place of welcome before Jesus
- "makes reparation for the great faults and crimes of the world." (John Paul II, Dominicæ Cenæ, Feb. 24, 1980)
- gives you "peace that surpasses all understanding." (Phil. 4:7, John 14:27, 20:19)

I rejoice with all who approach the Throne of Grace with humble hearts each hour of each day throughout the year. Our Lord, truly present in the Most Blessed Sacrament, has drawn our Christian family together. Blessed John Paul II once said that it is from the Eucharist that "we receive strength to live the Christian life." It is from the Eucharist that we receive the zeal to share that life with others. Your faithful witness has inspired many to seek Our Lord. Your presence before Our Lord has touched the hearts of God's lost children. Your sacrifice has enabled many hidden souls to encounter Our Lord Jesus. Your perseverance and sincere love for Christ has moved the world closer to the Kingdom of Heaven. You are beautiful reflections of God's love and you are His beloved. Thank you for the generous gift of yourself. You are truly a witness of Our Lord's generous love. Thank you for making Adoration of Our Eucharistic King a beautiful reality at St. Bernadette!

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline

Come Away and Rest Awhile

What does the image of a shepherd tell us about God's care for us? Shepherding was one of the oldest callings in Israel, even before farming, since the Chosen People had traveled from place to place, living in tents, and driving their flocks from one pasture to another. Looking after sheep was no easy task. It required great skill and courage. Herds were often quite large, thousands or even ten thousands of sheep. The flocks spent a good part of the year in the open country. Watching over them required a great deal of attention and care.

Stray sheep must be brought back lest they die

Sheep who strayed from the flock had to be sought out and brought back by the shepherd. Since hyenas, jackals, wolves, and even bear were common and fed on sheep, the shepherds often had to do battle with these wild and dangerous beasts. A shepherd literally had to put his life on the line in defending his sheep. Shepherds took turns watching the sheep at night to ward off any attackers. The sheep and their shepherds continually lived together. Their life was so intimately bound together that individual sheep, even when mixed with other flocks, could recognize the voice of their own shepherd and would come immediately when called by name.

God himself leads us like a good shepherd

The Old Testament often spoke of God as shepherd of his people, Israel. The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want (Psalm 23:1). Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, you who lead Joseph like a flock! (Psalm 80:1) We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture (Psalm 100:3). The Messiah is also pictured as the shepherd of God's people: He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arms (Isaiah 40:11).

Jesus told his disciples that he was the Good Shepherd who was willing to lay down his life for his sheep (Matthew 18:12, Luke 15:4, John 10). When he saw the multitude of people in need of protection and care, he was moved to respond with compassionate concern. His love was a personal love for each and every person who came to him in need.

Jesus is the Shepherd and Guardian of our souls

Peter the apostle called Jesus the Shepherd and Guardian of our souls (1 Peter 2:25). Do you know the peace and security of a life freely submitted to Jesus, the Good Shepherd? In the person of the Lord Jesus we see the unceasing vigilance and patience of God's love. In our battle against sin and evil, Jesus is ever ready to give us help, strength, and refuge. Do you trust in his grace and help at all times?

Lord Jesus, you guard and protect us from all evil. Help me to stand firm in your word and to trust in your help in all circumstances. May I always find rest and refuge in the shelter of your presence. dailyscripture.net

Culture of Life Ministry

Because of your generous donations, more than 500 children have been served through CarePortal!

The CarePortal team is looking for gently used bunk beds for families in need. Financial contributions are also always needed to purchase cleaning supplies, clothes, and baby items. Manpower to move furniture, and volunteers with trucks are needed -- only a few hours every month or two. Please contact Kelly Sarotte at sarottekelly@gmail.com. To donate now:

- Please visit our parish website at <https://www.saintbernadette.com/ministry-culturelife> and click on the CarePortal link near the bottom of the page.
- This will take you to the CarePortal site and St. Bernadette's CarePortal Fund.
- Once there, click on "Give to our CarePortal Fund" tab to securely donate

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells his disciples to "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." St. Vincent de Paul, a great man of action, was also a contemplative. His contemplation of God's love overflowed into practical love for the poor.

Please say a special prayer for the poor and forgotten and consider making a donation to St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you.
