Feast Day of Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus

Dear Family,

Our Lord's mercy doesn't always feel or look like mercy. What do I mean? Take a look at Martha in the Gospels. Our Lord's interaction with her at times seems very similar to the way He speaks to many of the Scribes and Pharisees. Our Lord's response to people and situations that are not whole, where there is suffering and heartache, His response is always love. Yes, Our Lord corrects, and instructs. He heals and brings hope to those who are suffering. And many times, Our Lord invites them to change and to have faith. What is their response? Sometimes grateful and sometimes not so much. Sometimes people responded with joy and others walked away looking downcast. The Pharisees complain and conspire to kill the Lord.

Martha too experienced Our Lord's challenging her to grow. Did she turn her back on Our Lord in anger? Remember, Our Lord told her that her efforts were not as pleasing to Him as Mary's efforts to spend time with Him? Martha could have become resentful for Our Lord taking her sister's side? What's wrong with preparing the meal or being hospitable to guests? Why were Martha's efforts considered to be "worldly duties" while Mary's efforts were more pleasing to Our Lord?

Every day, everyone is faced with this choice – the choice to become burdened with worldly duties or do we take the time we need to sit at the feet of the Lord. We don't find in Sacred Scripture how Martha responded to Our Lord's challenge to her complaint in that moment. But we do know Martha's faith was clearly where it needed to be when her brother Lazarus died. In that moment of great sorrow and distress, Martha showed the faith that she lacked before.

Martha placed her faith in Our Lord when her brother Lazarus died. Remember Our Lord's words to her in her great sorrow. "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live... Martha do you believe this?" Martha responds, "Yes, Lord, I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God."

St. Martha's reactions to Our Lord in moments of disappointment, rejection, and sadness can help us to grow in holiness and trust. There are times when we don't get our way or the response that we desire from Our Lord. There are times when you and I may turn to God in anger or frustration because we didn't get our way. Some people may move away from God or even blame God when they go through difficult times like a job loss, a broken relationship or the loss of a loved one. Like St. Martha, do you practice your faith and make a choice to trust Our Lord even when you don't understand?

We are all faced with many worldly obligations and duties today. The enemy works hard to fill our schedule in the hopes that we become overwhelmed or at least frustrated so that we make dumb decisions. Like Martha, each of us have or will experience loss. It may be the loss of a job, a broken relationship or the death of a loved one. I pray, each of us may follow St. Martha's example of accepting Our Lord's invitation to change, to have faith, to focus on what is necessary, on the better part... on Our Lord.

God Bless,

The Miraculous Sign of Jesus

Can anything on this earth truly satisfy the deepest longing and hunger we experience for God? A great multitude had gathered to hear Jesus, no doubt because they were hungry for the word of life. Jesus' disciples wanted to send them away at the end of the day because they did not have the resources to feed them. They even complained how much money it would take to feed such a large crowd - at least six month's wages! Jesus, the Bread of Life, took the little they had - five loaves and two fish - and giving thanks to his heavenly Father, distributed to all until their hunger was satisfied.

Jesus is the true bread from heaven that gives us abundant life

The people of Israel had been waiting for the prophet whom Moses had promised: The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brethren - him shall you heed (Deuteronomy 18:15). The signs which Jesus did, including the miraculous feeding of the five thousand signified that God has indeed sent him as the anointed Prophet and King. Jesus' feeding of the five thousand is the only miracle that is repeated in all four Gospel accounts. What is the significance of this particular miracle? The miraculous feeding of such a great multitude pointed to God's provision of manna in the wilderness for the people of Israel under Moses' leadership (Exodus 16). This daily provision of food in the barren wilderness foreshadowed the true heavenly bread which Jesus would offer his followers.

The food that makes us live forever in Jesus Christ

Jesus makes a claim which only God can make: He is the true bread of heaven that can satisfy the deepest hunger we experience. The sign of the multiplication of the loaves when the Lord says the blessing, breaks, and distributes through his disciples prefigures the superabundance of the unique bread of his Eucharist or Lord's Supper. When we receive from the Lord's table we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.) calls it the "one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ" (Ad Eph. 20,2). This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward.

When you approach the Table of the Lord, what do you expect to receive? Healing, pardon, comfort, and rest for your soul? The Lord has much more for us, more than we can ask or imagine. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist at the Lord's Table is an intimate union with Jesus Christ, our Divine Healer and Savior. As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens us in charity and enables us to break with disordered attachments to creatures and to be more firmly rooted in the love of Christ. Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?

The Lord alone can satisfy the deepest longing of our heart

The feeding of the five thousand shows the remarkable generosity of God and his great kindness towards us. When God gives, he gives abundantly. He gives more than we need for ourselves so that we may have something to share with others, especially those who lack what they need. God takes the little we have and multiplies it for the good of others. Do you trust in God's provision for you and do you share freely with others, especially those who are in need?

Lord Jesus, you satisfy the deepest longing of our heart and you feed us with the finest of wheat (Psalm 81:16). Fill me with gratitude and give me a generous heart that I may freely share what you have given to me.

Welcome
THANK YOU FOR JOINING US OLPI

In the early Church, the entire community welcomed and evangelized newcomers. The responsibility to catechize (teach and form) was shared by all in the community. Vatican II restored this earlier model of initiation of adults and now relies on the Parish community to be sponsors, godparents, leaders, friends and to pray for those in the initiation process.

Do you know someone who is not Catholic but is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith? Do you have a friend or relative that has been attending mass for years but has never taken steps towards becoming a Catholic? Do you have gifts, talents and treasures that can be used to help support our initiation process? If so, please contact the Parish Office and find out ways that you can become involved as a participant, supporter or contributor.

Our program accepts participants year round and all are welcomed. We currently have catechumens and candidates ranging in age from their early twenties up to retirees. We would love to hear from you, so call soon.
