Survey Says?

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

“We all do no end of feeling and we mistake it for thinking. And out of it we get an aggregation which we consider a boon. Its name is public opinion. It settles everything. Some think it is the voice of God.” - Mark Twain

There used to be a time, not so long ago, when it seemed like many people would look to the Gallup Poll to gain some insight into what a majority of people believed or thought about a particular issue or individual. For instance, the Gallup Poll was seen as sort of the “gold standard” for determining the pulse of public opinion during elections. Officially, the Gallup Poll is viewed as the business of measuring and tracking the public's attitudes concerning virtually every political, social, and economic issue of the day. Nowadays there are polls for just about everything. Can I just say, I don't trust most polls?

While polls have their place in our world for those who are into public opinion, not everything (especially important things) are best determined by public opinion. For example, faith is not determined by a poll. Truth is not established by the number of people who believe in the latest fad. Much of the world believed in many gods two thousand years ago. Only the Jews believed in one God. Clearly the Jews were outnumbered, but they were not wrong. No poll should decide whether or not something is to be believed or not believed. No survey should decide whether a course of action is moral or immoral. When it comes down to it, opinions are like belly buttons – everyone has one. Truth matters. God matters. The Lord never, anywhere in the Bible, promised us that we would be on the majority side of every issue, or, for that matter, of any issue; but Our Lord did promise us this: that He would be with us always.

In the Gospel, Our Lord says: “Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you shall not have life within you.” This message of Jesus was not very popular with many people. What was the result of Jesus' “unpopular” words? “Many of his disciples returned to their former way of life and no longer accompanied him.” Jesus' disciples might have thought that Jesus did not realize what He was saying. So, they said to Jesus, “This sort of talk is hard to endure. How can anyone take it seriously.” They wanted Jesus to tone things down. They wanted Jesus to become more politically correct and give the people what they wanted to hear. They wanted him to be popular.

But Jesus was not interested in being popular or politically correct. He wasn't about to take a poll on what the people wanted to believe. He was not about to eliminate the gift of the Eucharist because it would take a great deal of faith to accept this belief. He was not interested in compromising the truth. When the disciple reported the reaction to His teaching on the Bread of Life to Him, His answer was, simply, “So, are you going to leave too?” He is the Eternal Word Made Flesh. He is the Source of Eternal Life. “Where else are we to go, Lord.”

When people are serious about life, they realize that they must choose God or not choose God. There are no other options. “As for me and my household,” said Joshua, in Sacred Scripture, “we will serve the Lord.”

God Bless,

If Anyone Eats of This Bread, He Will Live Forever

God offers his people abundant life, but we can miss it. What is the bread of life which Jesus offers? It is first of all the life of God himself - life which sustains us not only now in this age but also in the age to come. The Rabbis said that the generation in the wilderness have no part in the life to come. In the Book of Numbers it is recorded that the people who refused to brave the dangers of the promised land were condemned to wander in the wilderness until they died. The Rabbis believed that the father who missed the promised land also missed the life to come. God sustained the Israelites in the wilderness with manna from heaven. This bread foreshadowed the true heavenly bread which Jesus would offer his followers.

Jesus is the "bread of life"

Jesus makes a claim only God can make: He is the true bread of heaven that can satisfy the deepest hunger we experience. The manna from heaven prefigured the superabundance of the unique bread of the Eucharist or Lord's Supper which Jesus gave to his disciples on the eve of his sacrifice. The manna in the wilderness sustained the Israelites on their journey to the Promised Land. It could not produce eternal life for the Israelites. The bread which Jesus offers his disciples sustains us not only on our journey to the heavenly paradise, it gives us the abundant supernatural life of God which sustains us for all eternity.

The food that makes us live forever

When we receive from the Lord's table we unite ourselves to Jesus Christ, who makes us sharers in his body and blood and partakers of his divine life. Ignatius of Antioch (35-107 A.D.), an early church father and martyr, calls it the "one bread that provides the medicine of immortality, the antidote for death, and the food that makes us live for ever in Jesus Christ" (Ad Eph. 20,2). This supernatural food is healing for both body and soul and strength for our journey heavenward.

Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?

Jesus offers us the abundant supernatural life of heaven itself - but we can miss it or even refuse it. To refuse Jesus is to refuse eternal life, unending life with the Heavenly Father. To accept Jesus as the bread of heaven is not only life and spiritual nourishment for this world but glory in the world to come. When you approach the Table of the Lord, what do you expect to receive? Healing, pardon, comfort, and rest for your soul? The Lord has much more for us, more than we can ask or imagine. The principal fruit of receiving the Eucharist or Lord's Supper is an intimate union with Christ. As bodily nourishment restores lost strength, so the Eucharist strengthens us in charity and enables us to break with disordered attachments to creatures and to be more firmly rooted in the love of Christ. Do you hunger for the "bread of life"?

Lord Jesus, you are the living bread which sustains me in this life. May I always hunger for the bread which comes from heaven and find in it the nourishment and strength I need to love and serve you wholeheartedly. May I always live in the joy, peace, and unity of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, both now and in the age to come. dailyscripture.net

THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

The Story of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

On November 1, 1950, Pope Pius XII defined the Assumption of Mary to be a dogma of faith: “We pronounce, declare and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma that the immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul to heavenly glory.” The pope proclaimed this dogma only after a broad consultation of bishops, theologians and laity. There were few dissenting voices. What the pope solemnly declared was already a common belief in the Catholic Church.

We find homilies on the Assumption going back to the sixth century. In following centuries, the Eastern Churches held steadily to the doctrine, but some authors in the West were hesitant. However by the 13th century there was universal agreement. The feast was celebrated under various names—

Commemoration, Dormition, Passing, Assumption—from at least the fifth or sixth century. Today it is celebrated as a solemnity.

Scripture does not give an account of Mary’s assumption into heaven. Nevertheless, Revelation 12 speaks of a woman who is caught up in the battle between good and evil. Many see this woman as God’s people. Since Mary best embodies the people of both Old and New Testaments, her assumption can be seen as an exemplification of the woman’s victory.

Furthermore, in 1 Corinthians 15:20, Paul speaks of Christ’s resurrection as the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Since Mary is closely associated with all the mysteries of Jesus’ life, it is not surprising that the Holy Spirit has led the Church to believe in Mary’s share in his glorification. So close was she to Jesus on earth, she must be with him body and soul in heaven. <https://www.franciscanmedia.org/>

LEGION OF MARY

Have you ever heard of the Legion of Mary? The Legion of Mary is the largest apostolic organization of lay men and women in the Catholic Church, with well over 3 million active members in almost every country in the world. It has been approved by the last 6 Popes and has been active in the United States since 1931. To join the Legion of Mary is to become part of a spiritual army fighting beneath the standard of Mary for the salvation of souls using the powerful weapons of prayer and charitable works.

The Legion of Mary, Our Lady of Lourdes Praesidium was recently reestablished here at St. Bernadette. Please contact Cathy Smith at (403) 580-9605 to learn more about legion membership and mission.

The "Saints Among Us" Restored Order curriculum is a 24 lesson, 2 workbook program that aims to spiritually and intellectually form children in the life of the Church--the Sacraments! With the support of the entire family, children knowingly enter into their own personal relationship with Christ alongside their peers and all work towards Sainthood!

During the Mass, we participate in the closest encounter with our Lord by receiving Him in the Eucharist. Families registering children in Sacrament Preparations this year will be invited to fulfill the commandment of the Church to attend Holy Mass on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. BE THE CHURCH, LIVE THE MASS, AND CELEBRATE THE SACRAMENTS.

Christmas Angel Tree Party Planning Committee

Every child should know the joy of Christmas.

For nearly 20 years, St. Bernadette's Angel Tree Party has been putting smiles on children's faces at Christmastime. We are putting together a team of people to help plan this year's Christmas Angel Tree Party for children from area schools.

If you enjoy sharing the spirit of Christmas, call Diane at 480-905-4429.
