Church and State (Part III of VI)

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II were two of the most important and influential figures concerning faith and politics of the 20th century. Both men were extremely gifted in their determination and their words. Together, they liberated Europe and made the world a better place by being a voice for the voiceless. They recognized that the just ordering of society and of the state is a central responsibility of politics. Both men knew that the fight for justice is not exclusively the role of the state. The Church in her God given responsibility to proclaim the truth of the Gospel “cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice.”

(Evangelii Gaudium, no. 183)

Few popes in the history of the Catholic Church have written more about Our Lord Jesus and the Gospel than Pope John Paul II. With a keen eye for world events, Pope John Paul II set out proclaiming the Gospel of Life as a pivotal teaching for the entire world. His encyclical, The Gospel of Life, defines in powerful ways his storied and historic papacy. Understanding the “culture of death”, Pope John Paul II introduced Evangelium Vitae with these words: “The Gospel of life is at the heart of Jesus' message. Lovingly received day after day by the Church, it is to be preached with dauntless fidelity as “good news” to the people of every age and culture.” (Evangelium Vitae, no. 1).

Acknowledging the clarion call from the popes throughout history to combat the “culture of death”, Archbishop Eduardo Gomez points to two injustices specifically. “Among the evils and injustices in American life in our current day, abortion and euthanasia are different and stand apart. Each is a direct, personal attack on innocent and vulnerable human life. Abortion has become a part of mainstream health care and one of the “freedoms” that Americans presume. Euthanasia, or doctor-assisted suicide, is fast gaining that same status. Both practices are zealously defended by our society’s elites — those who shape public opinion and civic morality through government, the popular media, and education.” (Catholics in the Public Square, Forward, Archbishop Gomez)

Like the holy men and women who have remained faithful to Our Lord throughout the ages, Catholics have a vital role protecting the unborn and the elderly by electing officials and leaders who promote the Gospel of life in our present day. Sincere Catholics must discern elected officials’ willingness to defend life at all its stages but especially the life of the most vulnerable. No reasonable person could knowingly promote the culture of death. No faithful Catholic can sit by silently when provoked by a culture of death.

To assist and inform Catholics to make morally responsible decisions in the ballot box, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops speak of our “preeminent priority”. They emphasize the importance of forming a person's conscience in light of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. An informed Catholic conscience establishes the faithful Catholic's role in electing officials who stand for life in meaningful and definitive ways. Elected or not, everyone is called by God to stand for life, to protect the unborn children who have no voice, who have no choice.

Paragraph 73 of Evangelium Vitae – The Gospel of Life states: "Abortion and euthanasia are thus crimes which no human law can claim to legitimize. There is no obligation in conscience to obey such laws; instead there is a grave and clear obligation to oppose them by conscientious objection. From the very beginnings of the Church, the apostolic preaching reminded Christians of their duty to obey legitimately constituted public authorities (cf. Rom 13:1-7; 1 Pet 2:13-14), but at the same time it firmly warned that "we must obey God rather than men" (Acts 5:29).

OUT OF THE HEART COME EVIL THOUGHTS

Which is more important to God - clean hands or a clean mind and heart? The Scribes and Pharisees were upset with Jesus because he allowed his disciples to break with their ritual traditions by eating with unclean hands. They sent a delegation all the way from Jerusalem to Galilee to bring their accusation in a face-to-face confrontation with Jesus. Jesus dealt with their accusation by going to the heart of the matter - by looking at God's intention and purpose for the commandments.

Allow God's word to shape your heart and intentions

Jesus explains that they void God's command because they allow their hearts and minds to be clouded by their own notions of what is true religion. Jesus accuses them specifically of two things. First of hypocrisy. Like actors, who put on a show, they appear to obey God's word in their external practices while they inwardly harbor evil desires.

Allow God's word to change your way of thinking

Secondly, he accuses them of abandoning God's word by substituting their own arguments and ingenious interpretations for what God requires. They devised clever arguments based on their own thoughts rather than on God's word. Jesus refers them to the prophecy of Isaiah (29:31) where the prophet accuses the people of his day for honoring God with their lips while their hearts were far away from doing what God asked of them.

Uproot wrong thoughts and attitudes before they grow

Where does evil spring from and what's the solution for eliminating it from our lives? Jesus deals with this issue in response to the religious leaders' concern with ritual defilement - making oneself unfit to offer acceptable sacrifice and worship to God. The religious leaders were concerned with avoiding ritual defilement, some no doubt out of fear of God, and others out of fear of pleasing other people.

Jesus points his listeners to the source of true defilement - evil desires which come from inside a person's innermost being. Sin does not happen. It first springs from the innermost recesses of our thoughts and intentions, from the secret desires which only the individual soul can conceive.

Only Jesus can free us from sin and guilt

God in his mercy sent his Son Jesus Christ to free us from our sinful cravings and burden of guilt, and to restore us to wholeness of life and goodness. But to receive his mercy and healing, we must admit our faults and ask for his forgiveness. "If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness" (1 John 1:8-9).

Let Jesus be the master of your heart and desires

When Cain was jealous of his brother, Abel, God warned him to guard his heart: "Sin is couching at the door; it's desire is for you, but you must master it" (Genesis 4:7). Do you allow any sinful desires to enter the door of your heart and mind? We do not need to entertain or give in to sinful desires or thoughts, but instead, through the grace of God, we can choose to put them to death rather than allow them to be the master who controls our way of thinking.

The Holy Spirit helps us in our weakness

Only God can change our hearts and make them clean and whole through the power of the Holy Spirit. Like a physician who probes the wound before treating it, God through his Word and Spirit first brings to light our sinful condition that we may recognize sin for what it is and call upon God's mercy and pardon. The Lord is ever ready to change and purify our hearts through his Holy Spirit who dwells within us. His power and grace enables us to choose what is good and to reject what is evil. Do you believe in the power of God's love to change your heart?

Lord Jesus, fill me with your Holy Spirit and make my heart like yours - on fire with love and holiness. Strengthen my will that I may always choose to love what is good and to reject what is evil. dailyscripture.net

NEW—EVENING WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Come join us at St. Bernadette for an evening Bible study on the Gospel of Matthew. Meet in the parish hall weekly to view a video by Father Matthew Kauth and engage in discussion.

Evening study dates: Begin Thursday, September 19th from 6-8PM through December 5th. The Bible Study will resume again in January 2025.

Please contact Dawn Morano at 480-435-4959 or dawn.morano@passionforhumanity.org with questions or to sign-up for the Bible Study.

"We hear the Gospels so much at Mass that it can be hard to look at them with fresh eyes. In this study, however, you will read Matthew's Gospel as you have never read it before—and in the process, come one step closer to knowing what a priceless gift we have in the Holy Spirit and the works He inspired." Excerpt from <https://tanbooks.com/>

INFORMATION

The parish and school offices will be closed on Monday, September 2 for the Labor Day holiday.
