27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He said to them in reply, "What did Moses command you?"
They replied, "Moses permitted a husband to write a bill of divorce and dismiss her." But Jesus told them, "Because of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this commandment. But from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female." - Mk 10:3-6

The Rosary

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Catholic devotions are usually popular prayers, rituals and pious practices used by individuals or groups to worship God or venerate Mary and the Saints. Often devotions express a particular conviction about the object of the devotion. For example, Eucharistic devotions, Adoration of Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament, Eucharistic Processions, Benediction all express our Catholic belief in the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist.

There are also devotions to Mary and the Saints. These devotions may express a relationship to these Saints and their role as spiritual companions. We celebrate feast days of Saints usually on their birthday into eternal life. The Catholic Church also dedicates each month of the year to a particular devotion. The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, one of the best known of all Catholic devotions. October includes the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary which is always on October 7th.

Maybe you have never prayed the Rosary because you are not sure how to go about it. Pope Leo XIII, once said, “The rosary is the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life. It is the remedy for all our evils, the root of all our blessings. There is no more excellent way of praying.”

There is no doubt that the rosary is one of the most important Catholic prayers (behind the Sacraments and the Divine Office). If you have not prayed the rosary before, now would be a great time to start. There are many apps and websites that can help a person to grow in their understanding and appreciation of the Rosary.

So where did the rosary originate? The rosary probably began as a practice by the laity to imitate the monastic prayer called, The Divine Office. During this monastic prayer, monks prayed the 150 Psalms. In imitation of the monks, lay people, many of whom could not read, substituted 50, or even 150 Hail Marys for the Psalms. Ancient writings at Christian sites suggests that the Hail Mary, the first half of which is biblical, dates from as early as the 2nd century. In time, a cord with knots was used to keep an accurate count of the Hail Marys.

The first clear historical reference to the rosary, however, is from St. Dominic who died in 1221. Historians tell us that St. Dominic preached a form of the rosary in France when heresy was devastating the faith there. One of St. Dominic's future disciples, Alain de Roche, began to establish Rosary Confraternities to promote the praying of the rosary. The form of the rosary we have today is believed to date from his time.

Over the centuries the saints, popes and an army of Catholic people have promoted and highly recommended praying the rosary. Praying the Rosary has been a part of my daily prayer for as long as I can remember. The Rosary was an especially important prayer for me as I discerned God's will in my life. Through praying the Holy Rosary every day and spending time in Adoration, Our Blessed Mother helped me to discern my vocation to the priesthood.

I always carry a Rosary in my pocket and find myself praying it in all sorts of places. The Rosary can be prayed with the family in the car or walking or with a group in church before Mass. I have found that praying the Rosary has brought me so much peace and strength, especially in times of temptation and frustration. The Rosary is one of the most powerful prayers to pray in front of an abortion mill... lifting up those mothers (and fathers) and those babies as they enter the abortuary frightened and often feeling alone!

Rosary means a crown of roses, a spiritual bouquet given to the Blessed Virgin Mary who intercedes for us. I hope that the Rosary will remind you of this powerful way to fall deeper in love with Our Lord, His Blessed Mother, the Saints, and one another.

My heart is filled with joy and gratitude for all God is doing in our parish. May our Patroness, most powerful St. Bernadette, obtain for each of us the grace to one day meet God face to face and may Our Lady be our solace and guide in every endeavor, joy, and trial! And may the Holy Eucharist be our wisdom and strength!

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline

What God Has Joined Together, Let No Man Put Asunder

What is God's intention for our state in life, whether married or single? Jesus deals with the issue of divorce by taking his hearers back to the beginning of creation and to God's plan for the human race. In Genesis 2:23-24 we see God's intention and ideal that two people who marry should become so indissolubly one that they are one flesh. That ideal is found in the unbreakable union of Adam and Eve. They were created for each other and for no one else. They are the pattern and symbol for all who were to come. Jesus explains that Moses permitted divorce as a concession in view of a lost ideal.

Jesus sets the high ideal of the married state before those who are willing to accept his commands. Jesus, likewise sets the high ideal for those who freely renounce marriage for the sake of the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 19:11-12). Both marriage and celibacy are calls from God to live a consecrated life, that is to live as married couples or as singles who belong not to themselves but to God. Our lives are not our own, but they belong to God. He gives the grace and power to those who seek to follow his way of holiness in their state of life. Do you seek the Lord and his grace in your state of life?

Do you seek to help others draw near to the Lord? The parents who brought their children to Jesus wanted Jesus to lay his hands upon them. They knew of the healing power, both physical and spiritual, which came from Jesus' touch. Jesus, in turn, rebuked his disciples for hindering the children from coming. No doubt the disciples wanted to shield Jesus from the nuisance of noisy children. But Jesus delighted in the children and demonstrated that God's love has ample room for everyone.

No one is unimportant to God. He comes to each person individually that he might touch them with his healing love and power. May we never hinder our youth from coming to the Lord to receive his blessing and healing power. And as we grow with age, may we never lose that child-like simplicity and humility which draws us into Christ's loving presence. Do you show kindness to the youth you encounter in your neighborhood, home, and church and do you pray for them that they may grow in the knowledge and wisdom of Jesus Christ?

Lord Jesus Christ, your call to holiness extends to all in every state of life. Sanctify our lives - as married couples and as singles - that we may live as men and women who are consecrated to you. Make us leaven in a society that disdains life-long marriage fidelity, chastity, and living single for the Lord. dailyscripture.net

THANK YOU!

A special thanks for your support of our SVdP Conference and its works. Because of your generosity, we were able to collect nearly $12,000 during our Fifth Sunday collection last weekend.

Your donations make a real difference in the lives of others. Your funds are used primarily to help individuals and families that live within our parish boundaries. Occasionally, we help families in our sister parish of St. Matthew's or a neighboring conference that needs some extra funds to help one of their families. But, over ninety percent of our funds go directly to those who live in our immediate area.

When we receive a call for assistance, two Vincentians go to the home and visit with the family. We listen to their story, look at their bills, and prayerfully discern how we can partner with them to assist them with their greatest needs. We pray with them and sit and listen to them with compassion and mercy. Often times, they tell us that no other agency answered their call and that it means so much that we not only called them but we took the time to listen to them and we made the effort to come to them.

In today's world, the temporary financial distress caused by the loss of a job or cutbacks on hours, an extended illness or the death of a family member, can leave a family short on funds and unable to pay their rent or utility bills. When that happens, we are there to pay the difference by sending your donations directly to the landlord or utility company.

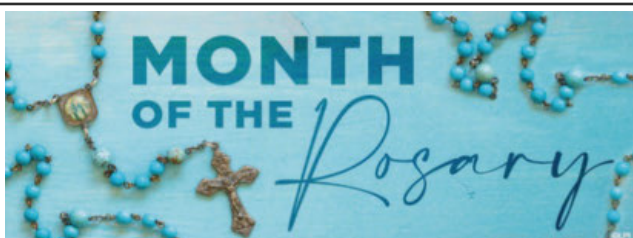

On your behalf and in the name of the Lord, we answer the cries of the poor. Thank you for helping us help others by your donations and your ongoing support. Our faith makes a difference in the lives of others.
