28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves,
"Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said,
"For human beings it is impossible, but not for God.
All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:26-27

Eye of the Needle

Dear Brother and Sisters,

In the Youth Catechism of the Catholic Church, Pope Benedict XVI, of blessed memory, wrote in the preface: “This Catechism was not written to please you. It will not make life easy for you, because it demands of you a new life. It places before you the Gospel message as the “pearl of great value” (Mt 13:46) for which you must give everything.”

In today’s Gospel, Our Lord teaches us what it means to be a disciple and what it means to leave all behind and follow Him. Literally giving up material possessions is one thing but giving your life completely to Our Lord is less about ditching the money and more about stripping yourself of earthly attachments... to not be possessed by your possessions. Elsewhere in Sacred Scripture, Our Lord reminds us in the Beatitudes that we are to be “poor in spirit”. But what does that mean?

Being "poor in spirit" refers to a state of humility and detachment from material possessions, emphasizing reliance on God rather than worldly goods. This poverty in spirit signifies a voluntary humility, recognizing one's dependence on God's grace and providence. It is contrasted with the pride and attachment to riches that can hinder one's spiritual growth (CCC 2547). Each of us are encouraged to direct our affections away from worldly things to pursue perfect charity, which aligns with the spirit of poverty (CCC 2545).

Moreover, the Church's love for the poor is deeply connected to this teaching, as it reflects a commitment to alleviate not only material poverty but also various forms of cultural and spiritual deprivation (CCC 2444). The poor in spirit are seen as those who await God's justice and rely on His plans, embodying a heart purified by the Holy Spirit (CCC 716).

Being a disciple of Our Lord Jesus calls us to a new life which requires us to let go and trust that God will provide. The world wants us to think more is better. Our Lord invites us to a way of life that demands more than this world could ever provide. Our ultimate peace can only be found in surrendering all to God. This requires complete trust in God, which is not easy. The temptation to “walk away sad” can loom large at times. The choice is ours. Give our life to follow Christ and find fulfillment or not. “The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting. It has been found difficult; and left untried.” — G.K. Chesterton, What's Wrong with the World

God Bless,

Give and You Will Have Treasure in Heaven

What gives hope and satisfaction to our desire for happiness and security? A young man who had the best the world could offer - wealth and security - came to Jesus because he lacked one thing (Mark 10:17-27). He wanted the kind of lasting peace and happiness which money could not buy him. The answer he got, however, was not what he was looking for. He protested that he kept all the commandments - but Jesus spoke to the trouble in his heart. One thing kept him from giving himself whole-heartedly to God. While he lacked nothing in material goods, he was nonetheless possessive of what he had. He placed his hope and security in what he possessed. So when Jesus challenged him to make God his one true possession and treasure, he became sad.

Misplaced hope and treasure

Why did he go away from Jesus with great sorrow and sadness rather than with joy? His treasure and his hope for happiness were misplaced. Jesus challenged the young man because his heart was possessive. He was afraid to give to others for fear that he would lose what he had gained. He sought happiness and security in what he possessed rather than in who he could love and serve and give himself in undivided devotion.

The greatest joy possible

Why does Jesus tell his disciples to "sell all" for the treasure of his kingdom? Treasure has a special connection to the heart, the place of desire and longing, the place of will and focus. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. The Lord himself is the greatest treasure we can have. Giving up everything else to have the Lord as our treasure is not sorrowful, but the greatest joy. [See Jesus' parable about the treasure hidden in a field in Matthew 13:44.] Selling all that we have could mean many different things - letting go of attachments, friendships, influences, jobs, entertainments, styles of life - really anything that might stand in the way of our loving God first and foremost in our lives.

The priceless treasure of God's kingdom

Those who are generous towards God and towards their neighbor find that they cannot outmatch God in his generosity towards us. God blesses us with the priceless treasures of his kingdom - freedom from fear and the gripping power of sin, selfishness and pride which block his love and grace in our lives. Freedom from loneliness, isolation and rejection which keep his children from living together in love, peace, and unity. And freedom from hopelessness, despair, and disillusionment which blind our vision of God's power to heal every hurt, bind every wound, and remove every blemish which mar the image of God within us. God offers us treasure which money cannot buy. He alone can truly satisfy the deepest longing and desires of our heart. Are you willing to part with anything that might keep you from seeking true joy with Jesus?

Why does Jesus issue such a strong warning to the rich (as well as to the rest of us who desire to be rich)? Was he really against wealth? We know that Jesus was not opposed to wealth per se, nor was he opposed to the wealthy. He had many friends who were well-to-do, including some notorious tax collectors! One even became an apostle! Jesus' warning reiterated the teaching of the Old Testament wisdom: Better is a poor man who walks in his integrity than a rich man who is perverse in his ways (Proverbs 28:6; see also Psalm 37:16). Do not wear yourself out to get rich; be wise enough to desist (Proverbs 23:4).

Where do we find true security?

Jesus seems to say that it is nearly impossible for the rich to live as citizens of God's kingdom. The camel was regarded as the largest animal in Palestine. The "eye of the needle" could be interpreted quite literally or it could figuratively describe the narrow and low gate of the city walls which was used by travelers when the larger public gate was locked after dark. A normal sized man had to "lower" himself to enter that gate. A camel would literally have to kneel and crawl through it.

Why is Jesus so cautious about wealth? Wealth can make us falsely independent. The church at Laodicea was warned about their attitude towards wealth and a false sense of security: "For you say, I am rich, I have prospered, and I need nothing" (Revelation 3:17). Wealth can also lead us into hurtful desires and selfishness (see 1 Timothy 6:9-10). Look at the lesson Jesus gave about the rich man and his sons who refused to aid the poor man Lazarus (see Luke 16:19ff). They also neglected to serve God.

We lose what we keep - we gain what we give away

Right after a wealthy young man refused to follow Jesus, Peter, somewhat crudely wanted to know what he and the other disciples would get out of it since they had freely accepted Jesus' offer to follow him unconditionally (Mark 10:28-30). Jesus spoke with honesty: Those who left all for him would receive a hundred times more now, even in this life, as well as eternal life.

What's the best investment you can make with your life now and the future? Jesus offers us an incomparable treasure which no money can buy and no thief can steal. The thing we most set our heart on is our highest treasure. Material wealth will shackle us to this earth unless we guard our hearts and set our treasure on God and his everlasting kingdom. Where is your treasure?

Lord Jesus, you have captured our hearts and opened to us the treasures of heaven. May you always be my treasure and delight and may nothing else keep me from giving you my all.    dailyscripture.net
