Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Dear Brother and Sisters,

As the United States of America commemorates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 2026, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops joins this celebration by lifting up the contributions of Catholics and the impact of our faith on the history of this country. In a historic moment, the U.S. bishops will consecrate the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus this month and invites all parishes to join in this consecration.

Why consecrate the United States to the Sacred Heart of Jesus? On November 11th, 2025, the bishops of the United States voted to consecrate this nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The consecration will take place as America celebrates the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

What does this mean for us as Catholics? Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus has developed over the centuries following the experiences of St. Margaret Mary Alacoque and the apparitions she witnessed in the 17th century. Popes have lauded the practice of Catholics participating in consecrations individually, families and even as whole nations. In his encyclical instituting the Solemnity of Christ the King, Pope Pius XI commended the pious custom of consecrating the nation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus as a way to recognize the Kingship of Christ.

By celebrating this important national anniversary with this devotion, we are blessed to be able to encourage all Catholics and citizens of this great nation to honor Our Lord and to infuse the spirit of the Gospel into various communities and departments of life. Pope Francis brought devotion to the Sacred Heart to the forefront of our contemporary Catholic life and culture. He said, "In contemplating the Pierced Heart of the Lord, who took our infirmities and bore our diseases, we too are inspired to be more attentive to the sufferings and needs of others and confirmed in our efforts to share in his work of liberation as instruments for the spread of His love."

As we meditate on Christ's self-offering for the sake of all, we are naturally led to ask why we too should not be ready to give our lives for others. Pope Leo XIV also invites us to contemplate Christ's love, which calls to attend to our brothers and sisters suffering in the world today, particularly in our care for poor and vulnerable people.

As we reflect with gratitude on the blessings God has bestowed on our country, our devotion to the Sacred Heart demands that we consider how we might foster truth, justice, and charity in American life. We are called to bring our faith into the actions we take and the lives we lead in our communities. We celebrate the ways the Church has contributed to a more just world and we invite all in our society to see the face of Christ reflected in each and every person. We welcome God's kingdom of justice, fraternity, and solidarity; remembering that God has a special place in His heart for those who are discriminated against and oppressed. Our Lord asks us, His Church, to make a decisive and radical choice to serve the weakest.

This anniversary and consecration give us a special opportunity to promote the beautiful devotion to the Sacred Heart and to encourage one another to offer their lives in service to God and our country.

God Bless.

Fr. Don Kline

Act of Consecration to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, to Thee I consecrate and offer up my person and my life, my actions, trials, and sufferings, that my entire being may henceforth only be employed in loving, honoring and glorifying Thee. This is my irrevocable will, to belong entirely to Thee, and to do all for Thy love, renouncing with my whole heart all that can displease Thee. I take Thee, O Sacred Heart, for the sole object of my love, the protection of my life, the pledge of my salvation, the remedy of my frailty and inconstancy, the reparation for all the defects of my life, and my secure refuge at the hour of my death. Be Thou, O Most Merciful Heart, my justification before God Thy Father, and screen me from His anger which I have so justly merited. I fear all from my own weakness and malice, but placing my entire confidence in Thee, O Heart of Love, I hope all from Thine infinite Goodness. Annihilate in me all that can displease or resist Thee. Imprint Thy pure love so deeply in my heart that I may never forget Thee or be separated from Thee. I beseech Thee, through Thine infinite Goodness, grant that my name be engraved upon Thy Heart, for in this I place all my happiness and all my glory, to live and to die as one of Thy devoted servants.

Amen.

– St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Adoration of the Most Blessed Sacrament

Jesus, thank You for being truly present, Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Most Blessed Sacrament. Please lead me to a personal encounter with You in Your Real Presence in the Holy Eucharist. Thank You for desiring to spend time with me in Eucharistic Adoration. I ask You to send Your Holy Spirit upon each member of our parish, so that we will respond to Your invitation and make a commitment to meet You, Our Lord and King, in a weekly hour of Eucharistic Adoration. In Your Most Holy Name, I pray.

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament, pray for us.

Amen.

Every Holy Hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it is recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity! - St. Teresa of Calcutta

The spiritual lives of our families are strengthened through our Holy Hour. - St. John Paul II

The only time our Lord asked the Apostles for anything was the night He went into agony. Not for activity did He plead but for an hour of companionship. - Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Perpetual Adoration extends its influence far beyond the individual adorers, touching their homes and families and reaching out to the parish community and beyond. - St. Pope Paul VI

Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Eucharist will obtain a more abundant measure of grace. - St. Alphonsus Ligouri

1. For the Individual

Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament deepens personal friendship with Christ. In silence, the soul is strengthened, sins are repented, vocations are discerned, and peace grows. Regular adoration increases faith, hope, charity, and trust in God's providence.

2. For the Family

When one family member prays faithfully, grace touches the whole household. Adoration brings healing to marriages, patience in parenting, unity in times of tension, and protection from spiritual harm. Families rooted in prayer become schools of love and forgiveness.

3. For the Parish

A parish with perpetual adoration places Christ at its center. From the Eucharist flows renewal: more frequent Confession, stronger Mass attendance, new vocations, deeper reverence, and greater charity among parishioners. It becomes a spiritual powerhouse for evangelization.

4. For the Entire World

Because the Eucharist is Christ Himself, every hour of adoration is an act of intercession for humanity. Graces obtained before the Blessed Sacrament can bring conversions, peace, protection from evil, and mercy upon nations. Hidden prayer before Jesus sustains the Church and mysteriously supports the salvation of souls everywhere.

Memorare, Explained

The Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the supplicant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary's intercession in an hour of dire need. "I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother," reads one section of the prayer, which goes on to beseech "the Mother of the Word Incarnate" to receive these petitions with love and mercy.

St. Teresa of Calcutta and St. Francis de Sales were two great devotees of this prayer.

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the text is derived from an older and longer prayer entitled "Ad sanctitatis tuae pedes, dulcissima Virgo Maria" ("at your holy feet, most sweet Virgin Mary"). The title "Memorare" is taken from the Latin word for "remember," which begins the prayer. The modern version appears in the 1846 Raccolta, a collection of indulgenced prayers.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thine intercession was left unaided. Inspired by this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother; to thee do I come, before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not my petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer me.
Amen.
