Pastor's Notes

The Parable of the Weeds and Wheat (Part II of II)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Church is filled with good Catholics, bad Catholics, hypocritical Catholics, fallen away Catholics, lukewarm Catholics, heretical Catholics, ignorant Catholics, Catholics who make politics more important than their religion, and Catholics who use religion for personal gain. Which of them are weeds and which are wheat? Time will tell, and in the end God will judge. In the meantime, ask God to give you the grace to strive to be a good Catholic, to strive to become a saint.

One of the reasons why some people do not take Christianity seriously is because of hypocrisy within the Church. The presence of sinners in the Church does not prove that the Church's message or the Church's sanctifying power is lacking. God allows each of us the opportunity for repentance. Since God is patient, we all must be patient with each other. St. Jerome once said, "We should not hastily cut off a brother, since one who is today corrupted with erroneous dogma, may grow wiser tomorrow, and begin to defend the truth."

As Christians, we are called to pray actively for sinners, even for those society writes off. It is our task to hold to the Truth: Christ, the Way, the Truth, and the Life. By our baptism, each of us is called to seek the perfection of our souls, and to assist others in that pursuit. Part of our call to holiness is to not scandalize others and to make reparation for those times when we have led others astray.

Personally, I know I have sinned and I grieve the fact that I have given people reasons not to believe in Christ and His Church. May God have mercy on me. The truth is that all of us have made sinful decisions that have hurt others. But our decisions to sin doesn't mean that we are to give up on our mission. We're all imperfect, and we all have wounds, old habits of thinking and speaking and acting, that aren't always pleasing to Christ. But Christ calls us always to repentance, conversion, and faithfulness.

Pray for someone that you may have been a bad example to or that you may have led into sin. Call to mind those people whom you gave reason to disbelieve in the importance of belonging to Christ. We are called to pray for the people we have scandalized throughout our lives. Then trust. Trust that despite our feeble evangelizing efforts, despite our bad example, God's grace may work. Trust that others may see the goodness, the eternal life available to them through the Church, the mustard seed of faith, the bit of sanctifying grace. May this trust help us all to become the saints that God created us to be.

God Bless,

Fr. Don Kline

OCIA A Journey of Faith

Do you know someone who is not Catholic but is interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?

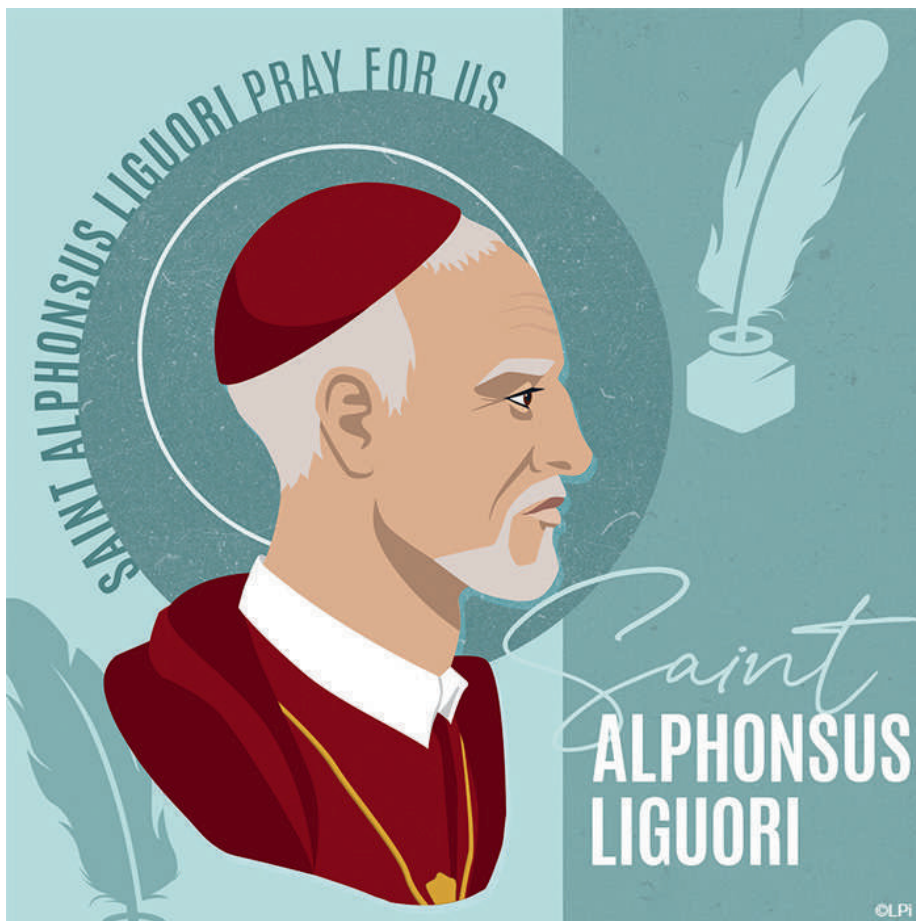

Do you have a friend or relative that has been attending mass for years but has never taken steps towards becoming a Catholic?

Do you have gifts, talents and treasures that can be used to help support our initiation process?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (OCIA) is the process that initiates adults who are unbaptized, those baptized in another Christian faith, and Catholics in need of receiving the completion of their sacraments.

Our program accepts participants year round and all are welcomed. We currently have participants ranging in age from their early twenties up to retirees. We would love to hear from you.

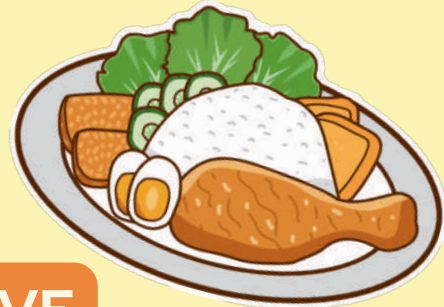

Contact Shirley Smalley at 480-905-4434 or at ssmalley@saintbernadette.com

St. Alphonsus Liguori, (1696-1787) was a prolific theologian and founder of the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (The Redemptorists). Renowned for his profound devotion to the Eucharist and insightful theological teachings, he is the patron saint of moral theologians.

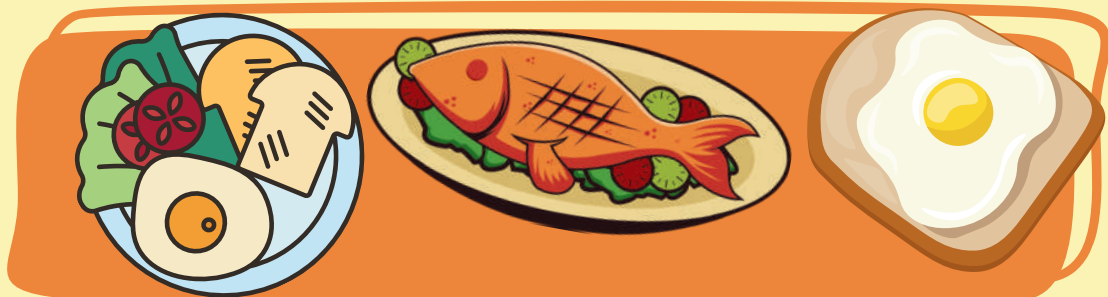

ST. BERNADETTE'S MEAL SUPPORT MINISTRY

DID YOU KNOW WE HAVE VOLUNTEERS WHO MAKE MEALS
FOR FAMILIES IN NEED?

When someone experiences illness, a new baby, surgery, or another challenging moment, volunteers step forward to provide home-cooked meals and practical support. A simple meal can bring comfort, ease stress, and remind families that their parish community is walking with them.

If you would like to volunteer for this ministry or are in need of meal support please contact the Volunteer Office at 480-905-4429.

Consecrate your home to the Sacred Heart of JESUS

The Enthronement of the Sacred Heart of Jesus is a beautiful and profound traditional Catholic devotion designed for the family. It involves inviting Jesus into your hearts and homes, recognizing His reign of love and mercy over your lives and families.

HOW: To schedule the Enthronement of the Sacred Heart, contact Catherine Smith, President of the Legion of Mary - Our Lady of Lourdes Praesidium at (403) 580-9605, and a prayer ceremony will take place in your home with a priest and members of the Legion of Mary, as an act of homage offered to Jesus Christ, King of Kings.

Do not let the past disturb you, just leave everything in the Sacred Heart and begin again with joy. ~ Mother Theresa

Back-2-School Paperwork

Teachers return to campus next week, and we are excited to welcome several new faces! We're especially happy to see two familiar ones - our alumni. One is joining us as a teacher and the other as an instructional aide. We're proud to welcome back those who loved this school so much that they're returning as a colleague!

Remember to check the newsletter and the website for Orientation Information, handbook updates, and back-to-school paperwork.

When you are out shopping for school supplies, please remember that Second Grade will be hosting a School Supply Drive the week of August 10-14th for our local diocesan school friends.
